

Recovery Practitioner

(Salary as advertised)

Islington

37.5 hours per week

Permanent

1. Main purpose of the role

The post holder will work from both hubs and, at times, across the local community, undertaking a wide range of 'duty' and 'care-coordination' functions, working with service users from the point of first contact through to their planned exit from the service following treatment.

An important aspect of the role is identifying the needs of service users' family members and significant others and facilitating access to appropriate support within the hubs.

This role is integral to ensuring recovery outcome focus throughout the treatment system. It supports the delivery of a wide range of interventions, including but not limited to: addressing substance misuse; reducing reoffending; Education, Training & Employment (ETE); and working with children and families.

As a Recovery Practitioner, you will work well in partnership with our clinical and aftercare services, criminal justice agencies, treatment providers, service users and the local community.

Your passion for evidence-based interventions and your ambitions for the long-term recovery of our service users will shine through everything you do: promoting recovery in your daily practice in both group and one-to-one settings.

In collaboration with the Recovery Nurse you will ensure prescribing interventions are outcome-focused and fully integrated into recovery plans.

You will work 37.5 hours per week and will need to demonstrate a high degree of flexibility in order to respond to the service needs within this crucial aspect of the treatment model.

4. WDP's commitment to you

WDP works within the following framework and requires all employees to do the same.

4.1 Equal Opportunities

WDP is committed to promoting anti-discriminatory practices within society, its organisation and in the promotion of its services to the community. WDP expects all employees to understand, comply with and to promote its policies in their work and to challenge prejudice and discrimination and where necessary to undertake any appropriate training.

4.2 Recovery

WDP is a recovery-focused organisation. Our staff and volunteers are committed to helping our service users improve their health and wellbeing, and to become free from dependency.

4.3 Career Development and Progression

At WDP we actively encourage career progression from the talent we have from within and we strive to provide not only promotional progression but to develop a specialist and lead responsibility roles with teams and other services within WDP.

4.4 Safeguarding

WDP is committed to ensuring the safeguarding and wellbeing of children and vulnerable adults, and all applicants will be required to demonstrate understanding of and commitment to best safeguarding practice.

4.5 Care Quality Commission (CQC)

Many of WDP's services are monitored, audited and regulated by the Care Quality Commission (CQC), the independent regulator of health and adult social care in England. Whether or not a particular service is registered, we believe CQC represents the minimum standard we expect for all of our services. We therefore work with all of our staff to make sure that every WDP service provides people with safe, effective, compassionate, high quality care and we encourage our services to learn and improve.

5. Your commitment to WDP
